

WELCOME ABOARD!

It is my pleasure to announce the selection of Korey Bonifas as a Talent Acquisition Specialist reporting directly to Fabiola Robles, Manager, Talent Acquisition. Korey assumed her new position on Monday, Dec. 2, 2024.

Korey will be responsible for researching, recruiting, screening, and referring job candidates for all positions at Long Beach Transit (LBT). She will support all facets of the recruitment process and integrate new employees into the organization.

Korey comes to LBT with previous experience as a Senior Technical Recruiter, where she managed recruiting from entry-level to upper-management positions. Korey is well versed in high-volume recruiting, training new team members, leading meetings, and executing hiring events. She also partnered with management on projects that led to organizing processes and procedures for team standards on hiring, interviewing, and reaching out to candidates.

Korey can be reached at extension 8504 or by email at kbonifas@lbtransit.com. She is located at LBTCO at workstation 797.

Please join the President and CEO, as well as the Executive Leadership Team, in welcoming Korey to LBT!

WELCOME ABOARD!

It is my pleasure to announce the selection of Victoria Long as the IT Project Coordinator, reporting directly to Pretty George, ED/VP, Information Technology (IT). Victoria assumed her new position on Friday, November 1, 2024.

Victoria will oversee the planning, directing, and coordinating of all IT project activities at Long Beach Transit (LBT), ensuring project goals are met within designated timeframes and budgets. She'll create comprehensive work plans for each project phase, allocate resources, assign team members, and set clear deadlines to maintain project timelines. To ensure alignment and transparency, Victoria will facilitate regular project meetings, fostering collaboration to address challenges and keep objectives on track.

With nearly four years of project management experience, Victoria brings valuable expertise to LBT. Most recently, she served as the Project Manager for Found Life Insurance Services, where she played a pivotal role in leading the development of innovative features for the company's website. In this position, she successfully fostered collaboration among diverse teams, including designers, developers, quality assurance testers, and other key stakeholders, to ensure project objectives were not only met but exceeded. Her responsibilities also included managing project budgets, meticulously tracking expenses, and implementing strategies to ensure cost-effectiveness.

Victoria can be reached at extension 4667 or by email at vlong@lbtransit.com. She is located at LBTCO at workstation 757.

Please join the President and CEO, as well as the Executive Leadership Team, in welcoming Victoria to LBT!
