

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR NEW POSITION!

It is my pleasure to announce the promotion of Ciara Blanchard, as Staff Accountant, reporting directly to Michael Herman, Manager, Accounting. Ciara assumed her new position on Monday, Feb. 17, 2025.

Ciara will be responsible for general ledger accounting, budgeting, and treasury functions for Long Beach Transit (LBT). She will also provide special accounting analyses, assist with month-end and year-end closing activities, and offer accounting support to management staff.

Ciara joined LBT in August 2022 and has held the positions of Money Room Counter, part-time Payroll Accountant, and part-time Staff Accountant within the Finance and Budget department. In her previous roles, Ciara has developed a strong understanding of LBT's financial needs and departmental demands. As a Money Room Counter and part-time Payroll Accountant, Ciara consistently demonstrated attention to detail and accuracy in all tasks. Her experience has provided her with a solid foundation of knowledge and responsibilities. Ciara will continue to build on her expertise and play a critical role in supporting financial goals for LBT.

Please join the President and CEO, as well as the Executive Leadership Team, in congratulating Ciara on her promotion.
