

February 2026 Employee of the Month

Transit Service Delivery and Planning

Carlos Zacarias
Bus Operator

Bus Operator Carlos Zacarias has been with LBT for five years and this is his first employee of the month nomination. He is currently assigned to LBT2. Carlos has an exceptional safety record, with zero preventable accidents or safety violations. He consistently starts his shift on time, in addition to arriving and departing on time to bus stops. In addition to Carlos' strong work ethic, he also provides excellent customer service and brings a positive attitude to work each day.

February 2026 Employee of the Month

Maintenance and Infrastructure

Pedro Pena Castellanos Mechanic

Mechanic Pedro Pena Castellanos has been with LBT for 1 year and this is his first employee of the month nomination. He is currently assigned to LBT2. Pedro is dependable and is always eager to lend a helping hand to his team. He's demonstrated leadership in the past few months by taking on extra tasks, as well as being proactive to adapt to changes during the graveyard shift. Pedro's excellent work ethic has contributed to ensuring that buses are on time for morning pull outs.

February 2026 Employee of the Month

Administrative Staff

Maritza Luviano
HR Generalist

Maritza Luviano currently serves as a Human Resources Generalist and has been with LBT for four years. This is her second employee of the month nomination. Maritza joined LBT as an Administrative Assistant for the Organizational Development and Administration Department and promoted to her current role in December 2023. In her duties, which often include sensitive employee matters, she handles each case with empathy and professionalism. She's recently played a significant role in helping implement Oracle, an upcoming new Human Resources digital tool, providing detailed feedback to ensure it meets the needs of employees. Maritza also has a positive attitude and consistently prioritizes employee engagement.

