October 2026 Employee of the Month

Transit Service Delivery and Planning

Ernesto Roman

Bus Operator

Bus Operator Ernesto Roman has been with LBT for 20 years and this is his second employee of the month nomination. He is currently assigned to LBT2 and is a part of the Training team as a Behind-the-Wheel Instructor. Ernesto plays an important role in preparing new Bus Operators to deliver safe, reliable service and provide excellent customer care. He also demonstrates a willingness to help beyond his regular responsibilities, recently assisting a fellow employee when he encountered an emergency on his way to work. Ernesto's experience, dependability and commitment to supporting his colleagues demonstrates his dedication to LBT and the development of new Bus Operators.

Administrative Staff

Kevin Schrader

Budget Analyst

Kevin Schrader serves as the Budget Analyst and has been with LBT for one year. He supports LBT's budgeting and financial planning by working with the Finance team and other departments to help guide spending decisions. Kevin tracks regional sales tax trends and uses that information to help the agency plan for future revenue. He improved monthly financial reports, making it easier for management to understand how LBT is doing and identify trends. Kevin also leads Analysts Congress, bringing employees from different departments together to share ideas, work through challenges and find ways to improve the agency. Through his work, including planning for World Cup service, Kevin helps LBT make thoughtful decisions about its resources and continue providing reliable service to customers.
